Rehoming

Penny

Sex: Female

Breed: Labrador

Date of birth: 11/06/24

Reason for rehoming:

Penny is looking for a Pet home, as life as an assistance dog is not for her. Penny can be over exuberant and knows her own mind

Is there any management required?

Has been known to chew items, although infrequently, re-homers would need to set her up for success

Health conditions:

Possible allergies that are currently managed with diet only

Live with other pets?

Friendly with dogs but does like to play. Used to chickens, horses and small birds

Type of home:

Penny would like a home where she can be out with the family and busy. Due to being a strong dog and exuberant would not suit families with young children

Useful information to know:

Travels well in the car

Penny is a pure Yellow Labrador with lots of character! Penny would enjoy being kept busy and her mind active, she is a smart girl but this can also get her into mischief. Penny is a confident, loving girl who someone will have lots of fun with once she has settled in.
